

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES

For the Regulation of the Parliament Library.

1. Members may not take out more than six volumes at any one time, and in every case are requested to report the same to the Librarian, or Chief Messenger, that the works taken may be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose.

2. Seven days are allowed for each octavo volume, but unless the same is enquired for, a strict compliance with this rule will not be insisted on. But in the case of books newly received, they shall be given out in the order in which they were applied for, and shall not be kept for more than four days.

3. Valuable illustrated works, maps, and books of reference generally, are not to be removed out of the Parliament buildings.

4. Overdue books, which have been written for, must be returned within three days at furthest.

5. Once in each year the Librarian shall take an account of stock, and for that purpose shall address a circular to each Member who has books in his possession, in order that the same may be returned within a given time. After stock is taken, the Librarian shall submit a Report to the Library Committee, to which he shall attach a schedule specifying such books as have been lost (if any) during the year, or unduly detained.

6. Any Member losing or defacing any book shall be responsible for the same, or for the set, if it form one of a set.

7. The Librarian is required to report to the Library Committee any infringement of these Rules.

CATALOGUE

PARLIAMENT LIBRARY

OF THE

Colony of Victoria.

Part II.

CLASSIFIED CATALOGUE.

By Authority:
JOHN FERNES, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, MELBOURNE.

1865.

P R E F A C E.

IN preparing a Classified Catalogue of this Library, and in distributing the books it contains, I have kept two objects in view,—facility of reference and simplicity of arrangement. I have also endeavoured to limit, as far as practicable, the number of cross entries.

Owing to the haste with which the first or Alphabetical portion of the Catalogue was pushed through the press, many errors escaped revision, but these will be found to have been rectified in the Second Part.

The Library contains, at this time, upwards of twenty thousand volumes, and is being annually augmented by the liberality of Parliament. As many books have been received since the earlier sheets of the Classified Catalogue were printed off, it has been found necessary to append a list of such additions, so as to complete the work up to date.

JAMES SMITH,
Librarian.
